Hello all,

I would like to thank those who were able to attend the emergency meeting today. Those of you who were not present, at the meeting we drafted a response to UCAP's recommendations. That draft is attached to this email everyone please respond with questions, comments and concerns. I plan to send out a final copy of this response to Academic Council, Faculty Council and also the Provost not later than COB Monday.

Please get your feedback to me as soon as possible, I will only send out the memorandum with a majority vote in favor of it.

Thank you,

Sandte Stanley

Hello all,

Thanks to Sandte for her efforts putting this together--I am anxious to hear how the Board meeting went.

I have made some suggested changes to the memo that are reflected in the revised version. I am sorry that I didn't use track changes (I forgot). I tried to highlight the changes that I made. I omitted the concerns for the Jewish students only because I don't see that as a real critical problem (this could probably be solved by just allowing those few students that follow the Sabbath to take their exams early). The University has dealt with religious exam conflicts for many years. But if the group wants it back in that is fine. I also added a few concerns that we discussed at our meeting.

I hope this is helpful,

Kathy

Looks good, I like the changes that Kathy made...I just had a couple corrections from our original draft. Also, I compiled a database of all faculty on campus and will be sending out an informational email this afternoon regarding the proposed changes and including contact info for faculty reps on Faculty Council should they choose to be heard on the issue. In line with the approach taken with the Board of Trustees, this email will not identify me as a part of UCSA or ASMSU, so I will be "speaking" as a concerned student/member of the university community. The email will not go out until later this afternoon, so if anyone has input or concerns, please feel free to contact me. Thank you. Kara
