We set up our Free-Speech wall at around 8am this morning. We had no complaints from anyone, and everyone seemed to like it. Around 1:30 pm professors Joe Kirk came by, demanding we cover up a part of the wall that said "Fuck Obama". When we refused he told us he would bring a box cutter down and remove it himself. He left and returned a few minutes later and cut off the "Fuck" part. He then left. We called our academic advisor who called one of the deans. The dean said to call the police because Joe Kirk had used a potential weapon. The police (USPD) came and interviewed us, and then went to talk to Joe Kirk. They returned and said we had to either cover up the profanity or take it down. There was too much profanity to cover it all up. We decided if we were not really free to exercise our freedom of speech, then there was no point in having a free speech wall. So we removed the paper, did then disassembled the wall, packed it up and left.
