

Home Services Clients Team News News Posting Service The Press Room Contact Us

WDC Media Picks

Movies: Hidden Secrets

One Night with The King

Radio: Jay Sekulow Live

TV: LivePrayer with Bill Keller

Books: Danger Road

Networks: TBN

WDC MEDIA NEWS

Christian News and Media Agency

View Print Friendly Version

Click to go back to WDC News

FIRE Lauds Marshalls Dropping of RaceBased Course Restrictions

2006-08-16 -- WDC Media News --

(AgapePress) - A campus watchdog has convinced Marshall University in West Virginia to stop offering racially segregated classes. The school had been limiting several freshman orientation classes to "African American students only."

The Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (FIRE) wrote a letter to Marshall's President Stephen Kopp, protesting the racially segregated classes, after which the university changed the course descriptions, dropping the race-based restrictions. This fall, several sections of the school's University Studies 101 course will focus on "African American student issues," but will now be open to all students, regardless of race or ancestry, and their official course descriptions will reflect this fact.

At one point the university's administrators argued that the "African American students only" restriction on certain courses had never been enforced. But Greg Lukianoff, president of FIRE, says the policy of having some racially segregated classes was "flatly unconstitutional and misguided" at the outset, and "Marshall's claim that this was never enforced" is beside the point.

Anyway, Lukianoff says he has a hard time believing the school officials' claim, "because, why would they put this restriction in there if they didn't mean to enforce it?" But beyond that, he asserts, "whether or not they enforce it, that's no excuse. When something is facially unconstitutional -- when something is unconstitutional by the way it's written -- it doesn't matter whether or not you enforce it."

The idea of "separate but equal" education was discredited decades ago, the FIRE spokesman points out. "No matter what the motivation," he contends, "it is extraordinarily shortsighted to undermine cases like Brown v. Board of Education."

Offering racially restricted classes "was a bad idea on the part of Marshall University," Lukianoff insists, no matter what solutions or benefits the school may have thought the plan would confer.

"You really do not want to turn back the clock to the days of segregation," he insists, "even if you think you are doing it with the best of all possible motives."

Last fall, the academic freedom and individual rights advocate notes, FIRE succeeded in getting Arizona State University to cease offering an English class to "Native Americans only." Ultimately, he emphasizes, this is a question of what is legal under the U.S. laws and the federal Constitution.

"Students rights to take certain courses, especially at a public institution, must not be determined by the color of their skin," Lukianoff observes. He says FIRE is pleased that Marshall University came to understand that all of its students deserve equal treatment under the law and ended its use of racial course restrictions.

Jim Brown, a regular contributor to AgapePress, is a reporter for American Family Radio News, which can be heard online.

© 2006 AgapePress all rights reserved.

Comic Genius 'Jackie Mason'

WDC Media announced that it has been retained by the management team of the legendary comic icon Jackie Mason.

Jackie's Tour Schedule:

Order Your Copy
1-800-957-6476

60 Sec Audio Teaser

Danger Road is the incredible true story of three drug dealers who were brutally murdered in 1983 on Danger Road the Florida Everglades. Lured into a phony drug deal each victim hoped would be his big retirement score, they allegedly found themselves at the business end of a gun wielded by a Miami-Dade police officer. But police and prosecutors say Officer Gilbert Fernandez Jr. and his cohorts weren't there to arrest the drug dealers; they were there to kill them and steal their nine kilos of cocaine.

Danger Road details the transformation Fernandez, a former Mr. Florida bodybuilding champion and black-belt karate champion, who became a Christian during the intervening years between the 1983 murders and his subsequent arrest in 1990. This was no courthouse conversion. The man who had once been named "Miami's meanest cop" had been a Christian for years by the time of his trial. He no longer forced African American detainees to eat cigarette butts from the squad-car ashtray at gunpoint, as he did in his days before knowing Christ. And he no longer ran the ring of bodybuilder debt collectors out of the notorious Apollo Gym, which he eventually owned. He lived to convert people at the gym to his faith; and in 1991, he was also on trial for his life.

Does God give second chances? In Danger Road you'll discover why He's called the 'God of the Second Chance.'

ORDER NOW
1-800-957-6476

Media Contact:

Radio:

DaveBohon@wdcmedia.com

TV: SusanZahn@wdcmedia.com

Print: pr@wdcmedia.com

WDC Media (877) 862-3600

RETURN TO TOP

© 2005 WDC Media. All rights reserved.