Berk, Ed, Tommy,

Here is recent email regarding improper solicitation that has been observed in Talley recently. I think you will understand once you read it that Dr. Willis has observed Tommy's disregarding the University's policy on undue solicitation in Talley Student Union.

Tommy, perhaps you have not been aware that this type of solicitation is not allowed. I'll be glad to discuss this with all 3 of you sometime when it is convenient. I'm in Pensacola this week, but am available via phone 919-696-1691. Or.....you may call Mike Giancola for further clarification if you'd like.

I look forward to seeing all of you on the 22nd at our beginning of the new semester breakfast meeting.
 Best, Ann

Mike,

Wanted to check-in with you on an observation I have seen in the building on multiple occasions. There is an individual named Tommy who works with Grace who is essentially soliciting throughout the building. He walks up to a single person or duo of persons, starts with a hello and then starts the conversation into religion, ending with giving them a card. This would fall under the university PRR of solicitation (Non-commercial).

This is different than the many other religious (and non-religious) groups we have to reserve a lobby table, host a bible study in a location or have people meet them in a specific location.

We have been enforcing the PRR and have stopped groups of all kinds (commercial, religious, etc) from passing out information and around the facility which helps to create that inclusive, welcoming environment.
