3 Is a Temporary Restraining Order in effect?

- Yes. Date the order was made, if known: June 7, 2024
Please attach a copy of the order if you have one.
- No.
- I don't know.

Notice: If the court date is rescheduled, the Temporary Restraining Order (form CH-110) will remain in effect until the end of the new court date unless otherwise ordered by the court.

4 Why does the court date need to be rescheduled?

- a.  I am the person asking for protection, and I need more time to have the restrained party personally served.
- b.  I am the restrained party, and this is my first request to reschedule the court date.
- c.  Other reason: There is a pending Motion to Quash and a Motion to Strike filed by Respondent that Respondent has filed a Notice of Non-Opposition to with the Court on September 18, 2024. Unfortunately, Petitioner's Counsel (i.e. Marc D. Pelta and Okorie Okorochoa) have been unable to complete and file the Oppositions to both of those motions. However, those Oppositions will be completed before the end of this week. Mr. Okorochoa was recently retained to assist with this case. The number of documents in the client's file mainly from the filings by both parties prior to Mr. Pelta substituting into the case is approximately 1,300 pages which has taken both Counsel some time to review with the diligence required to effectively represent Petitioner. Therefore, given Respondent's filing of the Non-Opposition, Petitioner respectfully requests that the September 30, 2024 hearing date be vacated and continued to one of the following proposed dates: October 7, 8, 11, 14, 23 or 24, 2024. Petitioner thanks the Court for taking the time to consider this Request.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information above is true and correct.
