PETITION FOR CIVIL HARASSMENT
RESTRAINING ORDER PER CODE CIV.
PROC. §§410.10, 527.6; DECLARATION
OF ATTORNEY OKORIE OKOROCHA;
EXHIBITS A - I IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO QUASH

HEARING DATE: SEPTEMBER 30, 2024
TIME: 9:30 A.M.
DEPT: 505

CASE FILED: JUNE 6, 2024

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Petitioner, Sarrita Anastasia Adams, Opposes Respondent’s Motion to Quash Service of 3 Process for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction and respectfully requests the Court to deny the Motion.
4 Respondent seeks dismissal of the pending Petition for Civil Harassment Restraining Order to 5 avoid jurisdiction in this Court by claiming she has no minimum contacts with California.

6 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 A. Petitioner’s California-Based Business

8 Respondent initiated communications with and harassment of Petitioner, a California
9 resident & California-based business, Science on Trial, Inc. (“SoT”) Respondent’s direct and 10 indirect communication with and harassment of Petitioner clearly establishes the necessary
11 minimum contacts for personal jurisdiction under California’s long-arm statute, i.e. Code Civ.
12 Proc. §410.10. Petitioner has been a California resident since September 2012. See Exhibit A
13 (p. 1; ¶2); Exh. B. Petitioner filed for incorporation in California of SoT on September 3, 2023
14 & it is also located in California. See Exh. C & D Petitioner formed SoT to perform forensic 15 scientific consulting & remains based in California. SoT operates primarily out of California,
16 where Petitioner maintains SoT’s client relationships and conducts the majority of her business
17 activities because she lives in California. See Exhibit A (p. 1; ¶4) SoT’s clients are based both 18 in California and across the U.S., but the core operations of her business, including client
19 management and forensic analysis, occur in California. However, if the Court finds that 20 additional factual development is needed to resolve the question of jurisdiction then Petitioner
21 respectfully requests the opportunity to conduct jurisdictional discovery to further explore
22 Respondent’s contacts with California in this case

23 B. Respondent’s Spurned Business Proposal to Petitioner

24 Respondent initiated contact with Petitioner on August 23, 2023 via an e-mail sent to 25 sarrita@scienceontrial.com from Helena Spinelli aka “Eleanor” who has worked in concert with 26 Respondent to harass Petitioner. See Exh. E. Spinelli proposed a business collaboration to 27 monetize Petitioner’s forensic consulting services by leveraging public interest in Petitioner’s 28 commentary on the Lucy Letby murder trial in the UK. Petitioner did not respond. On

1 September 20, 2023, Respondent e-mailed Petitioner, asking her questions about her professional
2 qualifications. See Exh. E.

3 Respondent's Campaign of Harassment and Defamation

4 On Sept. 27, Respondent launched an online campaign of harassment against Petitioner
5 on reddit.com. See Exh. F. She and her associates then expanded the harassment campaign to 6 Twitter/X.com & Facebook.com. See Exh. G. Of course, all of these campaigns are easily
7 located by searching Petitioner's and SoT's name on Google.com. They used various aliases that 8 are clearly connected with Respondent's online harassment as shown in Exhibits F & G.
9 Respondent even hacked into closed SoT meetings that Petitioner had with staff then published
10 recordings from it online. See Exhibits A (p. 2; ¶9) & H. Respondent's harassment is ongoing 11 because she maintains the harassing discussion page on www.reddit.com and her associates even 12 harassed Petitioner via one of her staff as recently as Sept. 15. See Exh. I.

13 Therefore, Respondent cannot avoid responsibility and use §§410.10 & 527.6 to shield
14 her harassment of Petitioner.

14 III. ARGUMENT

15 A. The Court Has Jurisdiction Over Respondent Under §410.10 in This Case

16 Code Civ. Proc. §410.10, provides that the Court possesses jurisdiction over a 17 nonresident on any basis not inconsistent with the Constitution of this state or of the United 18 States. However, due process requires only that in order to subject a party to a judgment in 19 personam, if she is not present within the forum, she may have certain minimum contacts with it 20 such that the maintenance of the suit does not offend traditional notions of fair play and 21 substantial justice. (Vons Companies, Inc. v. Seabest Foods, Inc. (1996), 14 Cal. 4th 434, 446.)

22 If a nonresident's activities are sufficiently wide-ranging, systematic, and continuous, it 23 may be subject to jurisdiction within the state on a cause of action unrelated to those activities.
24 However, where the activity is less extensive, the cause of action must arise out of or be 25 connected with the defendant's forum-related activity. (Id.)

26 The U.S. Supreme Court has described the minimum contacts necessary to establish 27 jurisdiction when involving a nonresident who has "purposefully directed" his/her activities at 28 forum residents (Burger King (1985) 471 U.S. 462, 472), or who has "purposefully derived

1 benefit" from forum activities (Id., at 473), or " 'purposefully avail[ed himself or herself] of the 2 privilege of conducting activities within the forum State, thus invoking the benefits and ,
3 protections of its laws.' " (Id., at 475.) The Court also has referred to the requisite forum contact
4 as involving a nonresident defendant who " 'deliberately' has engaged in significant activities
5 with a State or has created 'continuing obligations' between himself and residents of the forum"
6 (Id., at 475-476), concluding that in such cases the defendant "manifestly has availed himself of 7 the privilege of conducting business [in the forum], and because his activities are shielded by 8 'the benefits and protections' of the forum's laws it is presumptively not unreasonable to require
9 him to submit to the burdens of litigation in that forum as well." (Id. at p. 476.)(Emphasis Added)

10 Here, Respondent clearly established minimum contacts with California by actively 11 initiating and repeating communications with Petitioner, SoT and her staff. Moreover,
12 Respondent's and her associates have flaunted the authority of the Court by violating the TRO
13 by maintaining the platforms of harassment online on reddit.com, X.com, and Facebook.com, not 14 to mention the related Google.com those very posts generate with each new harassing posting
15 about Petitioner and/or SoT.

16 B. Minimum Contacts Using Social Media May Result in Purposeful Availment

17 Electronic communication may establish the necessary minimum contacts in a state to 18 establish jurisdiction over a defendant. (Hall v. LaRonde (1997) 56 Cal.App.4th 1342, 1344.) In 19 Zehia v. Sup. Court (2020) 45 Cal.App.5th 54, the Court ruled that the trial court could exercise
20 specific personal jurisdiction under §410.10 because a substantial connection to California arose 21 under the effects test from the nonresident's alleged intentional conduct in sending targeted 22 private social media messages directly to California residents with knowledge that they were 23 California residents, intending to disrupt their relationship and to cause reputational injury in 24 California through defamatory and harassing conversations, which was sufficient to establish 25 purposeful availment of the forum's benefits.

26 By comparison, the case at bar is similar to Zehia v. Superior Court (2020) 45
27 Cal.App.5th 543 because the Court found that personal jurisdiction was proper over an out-of-28 state defendant who engaged in targeted, defamatory conduct aimed directly at a California resident. In Zehia, the defendant used social media and other means to make personal attacks on

1 the plaintiff, with the specific intent to harm the plaintiff's reputation in California. The Court
2 held that the defendant's actions, which were focused on causing harm to a California resident,
3 satisfied the requirement for personal jurisdiction, as the defendant knew the harm would be felt
4 primarily in California.

5 Here, Respondent similarly directed her actions at Petitioner, a California resident, and 6 her California-based business, i.e. SoT. Respondent initiated personal communication with 7 Petitioner, seeking a business relationship. After Petitioner did not accept Respondent's
8 proposal, Respondent engaged in a sustained campaign of harassment, as described above. The 9 harassment was and remains explicitly aimed at Petitioner and/or SoT. Respondent's and her 10 associates coordinated harassment of Petitioner illustrates a deliberate and coordinated effort to 11 harass Petitioner, much like the focused efforts in Zehia.

12 C. This Case is Distinguishable from Burdick Due to Respondent's Targeted, Personal
13 Conduct Directly Aimed at Petitioner in California

14 This case is clearly distinguishable from Burdick v. Superior Court (2015) 233
15 Cal.App.4th 8, where the Court declined to exercise personal jurisdiction over an out-of-state
16 defendant who posted defamatory content on social media. In Burdick, the Court found that the 17 defendant's posts were directed at a global audience rather than specifically targeting California.

18 Here, by contrast, Respondent's actions were not part of a broad, generalized online
19 presence but were instead directly aimed at Petitioner/SoT, a California resident, and her 20 California-based business. Respondent initiated, orchestrated, perpetuated, perpetuates, and 21 continues to maintain the harassment of Petitioner and/or SoT. Respondent's communication
22 with and harassment of Petitioner establishes Respondent's minimum, deliberate and purposeful
23 contact with California.

24 After Petitioner did not accept Respondent's business proposal, Respondent's actions
25 escalated into a targeted campaign of harassment, as described above. Petitioner details the 26 genesis of Respondent's initiation of communication and the harassment in her declaration that is 27 attached as Exhibit A to this Opposition. Respondent, her aliases, and her associates, specifically
28 named Petitioner many times on the websites stated above, spreading false information about her

1 personal life, qualifications and business practices with the unmistakable intent to damage SoT
2 and her credibility in her professional community.

3 Here, in contrast to the defendant in Burdick, Respondent's conduct extended beyond
4 public social media posts. Respondent took additional steps to personally attack Petitioner by 5 and through online posts even through others such as "Jess Rose", Helena Spinelli aka "Eleanor"
6 & others. See Exhibit A (p. 1, ¶¶5-8; p. 2, ¶¶9-10) which reveal that Respondent coordinated 7 with others to plan and execute this harassment campaign, further illustrating that her actions
8 were intentional and aimed at personally targeting Petitioner and her California business, i.e. SoT.
9 The nature of Respondent's harassment of Petitioner, the coordinated efforts by Respondent, and 10 the targeted messages in response to Petitioner's non-acceptance of Respondent's initial offer
11 clearly distinguish this case from Burdick, where the conduct was impersonal and broadly 12 directed. Respondent's actions were expressly aimed at Petitioner to personally and 13 professionally humiliate her, ruin SoT, making the exercise of personal jurisdiction in California
14 appropriate and necessary for the Court to put a stop to Respondent harassing Petitioner.

15 D. Respondent Purposefully Availed Herself of California

16 Respondent's claim that she has no substantial contacts with California is contradicted by 17 the evidence of her own conduct that is even ongoing. See Exhibit A (p. 1, ¶¶5-8; p. 2, ¶¶9-10)

18 Courts have consistently held that when a non-resident defendant initiates contact with a 19 resident of the forum state to form a business relationship, the defendant is subject to personal 20 jurisdiction in that state.

21 Here, Respondent is subject to specific jurisdiction in California because, by sending 22 messages, emails, and other communications to Petitioner while Petitioner resided in California,
23 Respondent purposefully directed her activities toward California, satisfying the "effects" test 24 that originated in Calder v. Jones (1984) 465 U.S. 783. Respondent was expressly aiming the 25 online harassment of Petitioner in California and knew that she would cause Petitioner and/or 26 SoT in California or else she would not have done it. In fact, Respondent makes her aims clear 27 in her harassment. See Exhibits F – I.

28 Calder stands for the proposition that purposeful availment is satisfied even by a defendant "whose only 'contact' with the forum state is the 'purposeful direction' of a foreign act

1 having effect in the forum state." Based on these interpretations of Calder, the "effects" test
2 requires that the defendant allegedly have (1) committed an intentional act, (2) expressly aimed
3 at the forum state, (3) causing harm that the defendant knows is likely to be suffered in the forum
4 state. [The] "express aiming" requirement is satisfied when "the defendant is alleged to have 5 engaged in wrongful conduct targeted at a plaintiff whom the defendant knows to be a resident of 6 the forum state." (Dole Food Co., Inc. v. Watts (2002) 303 F.3d 1104, 1111.)

7 Here, Respondent's own proactive, sustained and ongoing conduct in harassing Petitioner
8 satisfies the requirement for purposeful availment. See Dole Food Co., Inc., supra, at 1111; See
9 also Exhibits A (p. 1, ¶¶5-8; p. 2, ¶¶9-10); F – I. Moreover, Respondent and her associates
10 have continued to harass Petitioner, even going as far as hacking into a recent SoT meeting and 11 contacting SoT staff. See Exhibits A (p. 2, ¶¶9-10), H, & I.

12 E. Petitioner's Claims Arise Directly from Respondent's California-Related Conduct

13 Petitioner's claims of harassment by Respondent arise directly from Respondent's 14 California-related conduct. After Respondent's business proposal was not accepted then she 15 initiated a sustained campaign of harassment aimed at damaging Petitioner's reputation and 16 business based in California. Respondent's defamatory posts on Reddit, X.com, 17 Facebook.com, and Google.com are and remain a coordinated harassment campaign against 18 Petitioner.

19 F. Exercising Jurisdiction Over Respondent is Fair and Reasonable

20 It is fair and reasonable for this Court to exercise jurisdiction over Respondent because of 21 her own actions that constitute harassment that she is more than aware of. Because Respondent
22 sought to initiate communications with and harassment of Petitioner, Respondent could 23 reasonably foresee being haled into a California court. Moreover, California has a strong
24 interest in providing a forum for its residents who have been harmed by out-of-state actors.
25 California is the appropriate forum to resolve this dispute via the pending petition. The fact
26 Respondent lives in Pennsylvania is something she should of considered before initiating a 27 campaign of harassment that she maintains, as described above.

So ... interestingly today I noticed that on 27/07 Sarrita wrote to the court in California claiming to be applying for bankruptcy? @Mrjusticegossipgirl When did she write to Judge Goss? And what did she say?

Eleanor

Plus she affirmed on this same date: "The law does not permit your courts to transfer the deed to my home, aware I am incompetent and unrepresented."

I am trying to reconcile your current objective with your past statements, or understand how or why they changed

It says much that people such as yourself think you are doing society a justice by "holding me to account"

S

What are your objectives?

What is your name?

Who are you?

Why should I answer to a person who stalks me on the internet and hides behind their computer screen?

H

You have a strange definition of stalking, I'll say that. Your name was published by the UK press

22:38

Human
Science on Trial

So what... did I give them an interview?

No

Have I given a single interview to a media outlet? No.

H

I only asked about how your current posts and past posts are consistent.

Oh please...

What is your name?

Who are you

Are your objectives today, the same as they were four months ago?

Utter nonsense. I am not answerable to people like you.

Well. I wish you luck. It must be difficult to sustain the permission to be anonymous here if you don't trust it

I have no idea what that even means

Clearly. Good day

Just note, that turning up on people's websites and demanding they answer to your questions you are hiding your identity and then exposing their Reddit account is a form of cyberstalking

Another interesting definition. Noted.

The only reason you know that the Reddit account is mine is because of a cyberstalking campaign. My name does not appear anywhere on the rexlucyletby

Hi there, you are doxing... if you want to ask me a question go ahead and do it... but stalking people on the internet is actually a crime!

Nothing has changed.

The bits you highlighted remain

I do not think you are interested in the campaign and we do not have time for people such as yourself. If you want to contribute something productive, have at it. But if you want to disrupt and waste time then please go elsewhere. This situation is by far more significant than your silly attempts at exposing the fact that four months ago myself and y colleagues had faith in the British justice system.

Thank you! It is all a little unsettled at the moment, so it would be good to hear that your views about the verdicts to reassure people the work reddit is doing is not against providing Lucy a fair trial.

Mrjusticegossipgirl

Right. My opinion on the verdicts are that if they are ever overturned, it won't be connected in any way to the actions of Sarrita Adams.

That of course does imply that if there is a valid reason to overturn a verdict or verdicts, that they should be vacated. I am not here to argue if that is or is not the case, and have no interest in subverting the discussions of this chat to that end.

Im late to reddit, so i must have missed this. who is a fake scientists and what makes them fake ?

FyrestarOmega MOD · 9h

The fake scientist is a former member of this sub, who was banned for harassing me, as well as deleting her own threads then claiming censorship by me. She also refused to adhere to rule 4.

She claimed to be a Cambridge-educated PhD in related fields, but remained fully anonymous. She made a number of debunked and erroneous claims, but the conspiracy theories spouted by her and a few others have poisoned discussion of this trial on this platform and some others.

The Alleged "Scientist" Has Revealed A Previously Undisclosed Connection To Countess Of Chester Hospital

Discussion

A quick recap [skip bulleted section if already familiar with the background deets, go straight to the bold part]:

- There was previously a woman who claimed to be a scientist that was routinely posting here to argue against the validity of evidence submitted to court - essentially arguing that the trial was a witch hunt and furthering the narrative that Letby was innocent of the charges against her.
- This "scientist" claimed to be a researcher with experience treating rare pediatric diseases who, alongside her staff, put together a document that could prove Letby was not the killer; a mystery virus that went undetected was the culprit.
- When challenged, this "scientist" would routinely threaten posters with doxxing and to report them to their regulatory bodies. Her antics worsened as she would erratically delete her own posts and then accuse the lone moderator at the time of deleting her posts to censor her content; furthering a narrative of victimhood before earning a ban for harassment.
- She established an opposition subreddit which she claimed was to be rooted in scientific evidence and research but never posted any of the documentation she promised and instead banned any users who pointed out mistakes in her calculations and logic.
- She also went on to create a website where she refined her claims and began promoting it across various social media platforms. She has since joined with the purveyors of similar content in order to create a new forum meant to advocate for Letby's exoneration post-conviction in order to secure an appeal on the basis that "bad science" lead to an unsafe conviction.
- Recently, she was identified by the Telegraph in an article which cast heavy doubt on her alleged qualifications and identified her as the leader of the main campaign to exonerate Lucy Letby despite her conviction on multiple murder and attempted murder charges.
- Another user, who has since deleted their account, found public records which further revealed that this individual has been declared mentally incompetent by the state of California. Their post can be viewed here.
- This documentation also alleged that she is a perpetrator of domestic abuse (important later) as well as having failed to complete her doctorate - suggesting strongly that she is unemployed/"self"-employed and that she may not even have a PhD at all as there are several references to not completing her doctorate.
- Other users have claimed to find no trace of the PhD in Cambridge associated databases while Richard Gill has offered to share her PhD with any who ask. A second user attempted to find this PhD and also failed

In the past 24 hours, a previously undisclosed connection between the "scientist" to the Countess of Chester has been revealed which call into question the potentially biased motivation that has driven her campaign from the start.

In her own words, she discloses that she has gone through a contentious divorce with her ex-husband -whose
