

- Selling, producing, or providing alcoholic beverages to another student on University or University related premises.
- The consumption of any amount of alcohol within the residence hall area.

Alcoholic Beverage Containers

You may not possess or use alcoholic beverage containers (cans, bottles, boxes, kegs, etc.) for any purpose in your room, regardless of your age. This includes beer bong, shot glasses, or other devices used to consume alcohol, regardless of whether they currently contain alcohol.

Alcohol & Other Drug Misconduct

Disruptive or disorderly conduct caused by the influence of alcohol and/or other drugs is prohibited within the residence halls. Students who cause disruption within the residence halls due to the consumption of alcohol and/or other drugs may be charged with violating the alcohol and/or drug policies.

Bias-Related Incidents and Hate CrimesBias-Related Incidents

Bias is a preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group, or persons based on their race, gender, gender identity, religion, disability, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or national origin. Bias-related incidents include, but are not limited to, non-threatening name calling and using degrading language or slurs directed toward a person because of actual or perceived membership in a particular group.

Hate Crimes

A hate crime is a criminal offense committed against a person or property which is motivated, in whole or in part, by the offender's bias regarding a person's race, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, or disability.

Drugs and Paraphernalia

You may not possess, use, sell, or otherwise distribute any illegal drug or controlled substance in or around the residence halls/apartments. You may not use any prescribed drug inconsistent with the prescription, nor may you distribute it to others. If drugs or illegal use of controlled substances can be seen, smelled, or otherwise determined to be present it can be assumed that a policy violation has occurred and UNMPD will be involved in the removal of said substances.

Drug possession may include:

- The physical presence of drugs in your assigned residence hall room
- Holding or transporting drugs on university premises
- Your presence in any room or area on university premises where drugs are available
- Purchasing or procuring drugs and subsequently selling, giving, or furnishing drugs to another person in or/and around your residence hall
- Physical presence of drug paraphernalia with or without drug residue on you, your guest, your belongings, or in your assigned room
- Growing or making drugs
- Seeds
- Odor or scent of marijuana
- Being under the influence of drugs

Larceny/Theft

Larceny/Theft is the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Constructive possession is the condition in which a person does not have physical custody or possession but is in a position to exercise dominion or control over a thing.

Intimidation

Intimidation is to unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to physical attack.

To be harmed by intimidation, you do not have to be the intended target of the offender. For example, a person who reports seeing anti-gay threats on a bathroom wall is considered a victim. Intimidation also includes cyber intimidation if the victim is threatened via computer.
