

REPORT IT!

Background Information

If you are reporting an emergency, please call 911.

Colorado Mesa University encourages individuals to report any incident in which any of our community are concerned. This report may be used to identify students of concern (behaviors, recent events in life that may create trauma, suicidal ideations etc) or behaviors that have occurred on or off university property that have impinged on the safety or rights of others. These violations may include: athletic inequity, bias, discrimination, dating violence, domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, theft, vandalism, or some behavior that you do not know how to name.

Reported bias incidents that violate university policy, or state, local, or federal law will be investigated and adjudicated according to existing conduct procedures. However, not all reported bias incidents will constitute a violation of university policy or the law. The university will respond to such incidents by connecting impacted parties and communities with appropriate support and resources. Participation in such opportunities is voluntary.

For an emergency, call 911 or the following resources:

If you are reporting a Sexual Assault and would like to speak to someone immediately, please call our CMU 24 hour hotline at 970-270-5895.

If you are thinking about or working with someone who is contemplating suicide and need immediate assistance, please call 911 or the suicide hotline at 988. Please reference our Suicide Prevention Protocol document on the CMU website.

Since this form is used for a variety of reports, please be detailed in your narratives.
